To Meta & Mark Zuckerberg- everyone has a right to free speech. Biological women also have a right to safe places & protection. To allow a man identifying as a women to violate a women's safe space is terrifying & called bullying. Please do the right thing & do not silence the voices of those exposing evil. Thank you!

Richard cLIFFORD

I'm very pissed off the Meta Oversight Board wants to remove videos that imperil women, particularly those men who are playing women's sports and those transgender people in women's spaces. It is not acceptable to do this, since it will destroy protection of women in private spaces. Men do not belong in women's sports, nor should they be allowed to inhabit women's rooms or other spaces. Please reconsider this and protect women's rights!

Ralph Barrett

“sex-based speech (including videos) protects women;

sex-based speech informs the public to best accommodate both trans-identifying individuals and women in tandem; censorship of sex-based speech would cause harm in ways the Board may not be thinking about;

sex-based speech is not harassment;

social transition ultimately harms many trans-identifying individuals; or

That Meta would lose credibility as an organization for taking such an extreme position.”

ERNIE PHILLIPS

Biological males should not be permitted to play on women's sports teams. I say this as a former retired high school athletic director that worked to keep men off of women's teams. How, by providing like teams for both biological males and biological females. Worked out great for both .

Muriel Strand

debate about science should never be censored anywhere. questioning ideologies should never be censored anywhere.

Sheena Grindley

Why are people being encouraged to lie? A biological man is a man and a biological woman is a woman. Live your life as you want but do not usurp or claim the rights of the sex you want instead of the sex you have. Do not demand that people bend their beliefs just to make you feel better. Do not shut people up. You do not have the right. Spaces and sports are segregated by sex for a reason, in fact many reasons. Have some respect and you may gain some respect back.

Paul Henkels Jr

Only humans with XX Chromosomes should be allowed in women's private spaces

Daniel Witt

Playing dress up does not make you a woman. Women should have an expectation if not right to their own exclusive private spaces and should not be invaded by those who claim to be women.

Susan Doerner

This is absurd. We do not have special people in America. Sex is binary, feelings are not. Only my sex, female gives birth. It's basic biology since the beginning of time. Religions are not exempt from criticism or hurtful thoughts. We have a broad freedom to disagree & voice those disagreements. Gender is an ideology & one of many. It. Is not special & in fact appropriates & removes rights & boundaries of women. You show degrading info physically & sexually of females constantly & with no concerns but this is over the top. Please.

For Meta to ban posting of events that actually happen, along with opinions on those events, is to suppress free speech. It weakens your platforms, which are increasingly viewed less as public forums and more as progressive ideological tools. Consider the long-term impacts of your suppression: you will lose users in the long run.

Phillip Cummings

"There are only 2 sexes -male and female. It has taken centuries for women to achieve the rights they have today and men should not be able to infringe on women's spaces or sports. Every time you indulge men in this way you deny a woman her rights and safety."

Sarah Rees

Women have a right to single sex spaces and sports that cannot be ignored, or silenced by preventing them from protesting when these hard won rights are being destroyed. You cannot consider the rights of 'trans' people and ignore those of women.

Carolyn Mackie

Free speech is so very important & facts should never be monitored or censored in any way! Especially the rights of women & girls who are entitled to their own same sex spaces whether that's in person or on the internet. No one should ever have to be afraid that stating facts is going to be attacked. Females make up 51% of the population and should be able to defend their rights & be able to retain their own words eg mother/woman/breast feeding etc.

Dave Martin

Dear FB team, these videos should be allowed to stay on your platform—for sure. They are evidence of a subject that often gets mistakenly labeled as “misinformation” (as if it doesn't exist) when it clear does. Thank you.

Stefanie Rush

This is unacceptable. Why do men have to take away from women? I cannot believe this is even a conversation in America today. Everyone deserves to feel part of something and a sense of belonging but not at the expense of others. Get organized, form another group inclusive of those who you want to accept. Do not force your views on me—we are all free to live the lives we choose and not the lives that others want us to live

Kate Sage

Women have had centuries of lesser opportunities and outright harm and oppression. The few mitigations we have fought for and achieved are being stripped away. Men need to step up and take responsibility for making other men who express themselves differently comfortable. One male in a female space and it is no longer a female space. And women are rendered less safe and a source of support and comfort is removed from them. Not being allowed to say these things is a gross infringement on women's rights which are all too precarious as it is.

Sharron Davies

I'm an Olympics female medalist it's imperative I'm allowed to present the peer reviewed science on sport, supporting fair safe sport for females, using biologically correct language. There are several major sports that now protect the female category including track swimming & cycling, but much work to do to present the truth to sports that are still not doing so. Sport for females will disappear if it carries on as it has been in the last few years. Truth cannot & should not be stifled from any credible social media source.

Ken Parker

I have 40+ years experience coaching women and organizing women only races. Women deserve all of our support to protect the female only category.

Kim Hover

Free speech is a right, you can not silence it because you don't agree with it. You are not the judges. You have a public forum. If this was a private forum then you could be the judges. Not on public content. Why are our rights being taken away when we are speaking the truth and not spreading misinformation.

Miguelina Núñez

'Meta, while I am not a Facebook or Instagram subscriber--it does not preclude me from stating what should've been glaringly obvious.

So, in the name of preserving objective truth and sanity, I would like to open Meta's eyes with some truth bomb(s). Trans-identifying boys/men are boys/men appropriating girl/womanhood---they are not biological girls/women nor will they ever be.

Therefore, trans-identifying boys/men should not be allowed into girls'/women's sports or, more gravely, into girls'/women's spaces.

Why should the aforementioned discourse be a point of contention and divisiveness is beyond any rational comprehension?

If Meta, the organization as a whole, purports to service all subscriber(s) interests, then why is said trying so hard to 'censor and erase' 50% of its subscriber base (REAL WOMEN), while pandering and accommodating the less than 1% of the trans-community.

Objective fact: A 'speech-prohibitive policy' is nothing more than 'CENSORSHIP' trying to disguise itself as protective speech. This begs the objective truth question: Will Meta remove the selective double standard mask and allow 50% of its subscriber base to express both empirical and factual grievances about their systematic erasure or will said continue to die on the bias/subjective delusional hill?

I will end with a few more objective facts: First, the Meta platform allows the mention of trans-identifying males as what is rightfully their sex.

Second, the inerrant Word of God is resolute: 'So God created man in His [own] image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them.' (Genesis 1:27, NKJV).

Third, please allow me the temerity of playing captain obvious: There is a 'God' and we are not Him! In stating an objective fact, let me dare entertain Meta with another: God does not make mistakes!

Fourth, both Biblical and biological truths dictate that there are only 'TWO SEXES'--male and female.

Fifth and final, for all the Agnostics and Atheists who only trust Science: Biology has never been malleable nor interchangeable--whether human or animal---despite what this upside-down clown world would lead unbelievers to delusionally believe.”

Ralph Barrett

There is nothing harmful about telling the truth and standing with women.

Michelle Hickerson

If truthful, real-life discussions about biological sex are banned from Meta, the uniqueness of womanhood, not to mention the progress of women, will be eroded. A speech-prohibitive policy would cripple any large-scale movement to protect women’s sports, domestic abuse shelters, prisons, or overnight camps. But censoring the truth has consequences far beyond this. Threatening the reality of sex works to dissolve the very fabric of our society.

Judith Wegner

Women have every right to object to so-called Trans males in their space. Some are seeking opportunities for rape. Men do not menstruate or give birth. Men who say they identify as female don’t have many girlfriends to shop with. Homosexuality has to acknowledge the difference is real.

Nancy Jacobsen

I am firmly opposed to removing knowledge that could jeopardize women any further than they have already been. It is a crime in my opinion that transgender men can participate in women’s sports. It is insane that men claiming to have the right to use a women’s restroom. Young females and older have the right to be protected and respected. Please don’t reduce your efforts to protect us.
