“After you silenced real facts about covid, you’re contemplating silencing debate and facts about biological males in women’s spaces?”

I limit my use of Facebook since the covid censorship. If you go through with this dangerous, unfair policy, I will leave all together, along with many others.

I hope you make the right choice and stand up for debate and free speech.”

Lauren Kamm

If meta cares about women—and the rights of the America people—they will not stifle and censor female voices. Mark already regrets caving to White House pressure to censor...why step in the same hole twice? Censorship is not the way.

Jeannine Parkes

This is not harassment, not allowing this speech is actually discrimination against women. Biology is fact.

Lou` Mcdonald

I am at a loss as to why a company that claims to employ some of the best technical minds in the industry lacks the mental fortitude to tell the difference between an honest opinion and violent harassment. You allow women to be threatened with rape and murder but if the same woman feels threatened by those males being allowed into a bathroom with her you label it as offensive. When you criminalize opinion you destroy all freedom.

Noelle Sanecki

Please do not invalidate my womanhood further by suggesting that anyone can simply decide they identify as things they are not simple because they wish it were true. If this happens, I will leave all Meta platforms, which I have been a part of since 2009. I cannot simply decide and enforce that I am any race other than the one I was born as. Sex is no different. Don't spread the lie that real women don't exist, because anyone can be one at any time. Please don't take this away from us.

ken Capponi

As a Father and Grandfather to female athletes, i am disturbed by the thought that MEN should be allowed in women's sports. This is so far fetched, it's hard to believe it's real.

William Horgan

As a libertarian, I could care less what a person wants to identify as. As long as what they do affects them and not me or others in our society. I don't want to pay for it, hear about it, or see parents have their children taken away from them, because of some Elitist who thinks they are smarter. If they decide to have surgery, good for them, I think it's weird. But insisting that they play sports against the opposite sex, is downright f'ed up. Putting a man in a woman's restroom, or prison is lunacy. Coming from the Left. Banning people who disagree, is also lunacy, and shows how Facebook is very biased. Bullying, is a man playing in woman's sports, or using a woman's bathroom.

Michelle Larson

"Everyone has the right to free speech and living their life how they want. Everyone can offend others in how they do this. But no one is allowed to do this when it endangers others. What happened to all the gains of the feminists of old? What happened to providing girls and women spaces to compete? Spaces safe from harm? The rights of a few do not outweigh the rights of the other 50% of the population. My daughters deserve fair competition. And study after study shows once boys go through puberty, the effects of testosterone last a lifetime (anatomical skeletal differences, center of balance differences, muscle mass and muscle fiber density differences). Everyone can see what happens around 5th grade between the sexes with speed, strength, and size.

My daughters and I shouldn't have to worry about encountering a man in a bathroom or gym locker room. Forever, if a man was in these spaces, that was an assumed predatory behavior. How are we to know which of these men genuinely think they are women and who is there just because they can and can take advantage? Again, this is an issue of fairness and rights of the many over the few. If there are so many of them, give them their own spaces.

Allowing biological men (trans or not) into female sports and places is the opposite of progress, the reversal and actually the worsening of the feminist movement. It's giving men rights over women, and encouraging them to be the voice of women.

Freedom of speech is not for the easy things. It's for when there is passionate differences. Suppressing speech just because it doesn't fit the current "in" thought is exactly what is protected in the first amendment. It's why the ACLU fought for the end of segregation as well as for the right of the KKK to demonstrate.

You can have policies that you don't allow videos in private spaces (bathrooms, locker rooms, etc), or that could target individual people. But don't suppress opinions, thoughts, words that you simply disagree with or think mean. That's unconstitutional. And up until recently, the country, Congress, the White House, and Supreme Court would have all agreed."

Kevin Roberson

Meta you are censoring free speech protected by the 1st Amendment. You will be sued if you ban and censor content like this because it goes against your political belief. Free speech is the bedrock of our Democracy you think you are protecting in the guise of hate speech.

Glenn Smith

“Protect women.

Stop cheating.

Free Speech is an inalienable right.

Respect your customers.

Respect biological science.

Respect open dialog.

Respect truth.”

Richard Reese

“Thousands of years of human history LOUDLY proclaim that there is a thing called ‘NORMAL.’ Granted, there ARE aberrations—but to totally turn society on its head to meet the demands of a miniscule percentage of humanity is ludicrous. Don’t give in to the demands of delusional people.

Protect women’s spaces.”

Vicki Msall

There are 2 sexes—male and female. Censoring free speech is unconstitutional. Of course you probably don’t support the constitution.

Julie DeCamp

“That Meta would lose credibility as an organization for taking such an extreme position.

Replacing TENS OF MILLIONS of biological WOMEN is probably not a great lawful move. It’s us women whom are commenting and sharing our opinions on what WE FOUGHT to achieve. We overcame this disgusting, immoral, sexist, policing long ago..

We will NOT be silenced ever again!

The rights of women are under attack. Your facebook users are not spring-chickens and fought the real fight that women and young girls enjoy today.

Try silencing our voices-again-and see how loud we scream!”

Susan Palmer

“Sports are a physical contest with categories which create an environment for as equal competition levels as possible. The most basic of categories is gender. No matter how many hormone therapies, or surgeries a transitioning person has it does not change the DNA of anyone. It also does not level the “playing field” for a man transitioning to a woman to compete in women’s categories. If it did we would be seeing women transitioning to be a man on men’s podiums, taking men’s medals, but we do not.

Categories for competition need to be based on DNA . Why is society encouraging individuals to live outside of reality, and take risky drug therapies ? The idea of not being truthful in speaking about tangible reality is ridiculous. Free speech, this is the US.”

Eric Cooley

“Protect women. Protect women’s rights. Protect women from being pushed aside to accommodate psychologically needy and demanding males who want to be, or believe they are, women.

Trans people deserve to live their lives like anyone else, which means they also must respect other peoples needs and rights, as well.

If you try to force compliance on people who will never accept that a man can be a woman as a biological reality, then you will massively lose users.

And as someone who invests via marketing on FB, I will be forced to divert those funds to better platforms.”

Terri Hannold

Censorship is antithetical to free speech. If truthful, real-life discussions about biological sex are banned from Meta, the uniqueness of womanhood, not to mention the progress of women, will be eroded. Women fought hard to be safe in sports and for a level playing field, and now men are conspiring to take that away from us. Please do not be a champion on the wrong side of women. To say that calling a man a man is harassment is laughable. Women have rights, too, and FREE SPEECH is the beginning of them. If you take that away, then we have nothing.

Robert Smallwood Jr

“If Meta takes this stance, I will no longer be using this platform.

I have a young daughter and to imagine her being confronted with a biological man while using a women’s restroom, is deeply upsetting and dangerous.

I once was asked to leave from a women’s restroom when I tried to briefly escort my eldest daughter, 6 or 7 at the time, just through the door—why in the last 10 years has this suddenly changed where some believe it’s ok for this gentleman to dress up and casually walk in/out of the women’s restroom, without anyone confronting him?

A Man—dressed in a dress or not, he's still a man—should not be allowed in a woman's restroom. Period.

These kind of policies are going to have downhill consequences that aren't even beginning to be felt as deeply as they will, especially for women.

We live in a country with free speech laws. While we should be cognizant and responsible with our words, selective censorship is only going to exacerbate division and not lead to honest and open conversation. Any potential one sided censorship is antithetical to our nation and will do much harm.”

David Patten

Stop censoring speech or I will leave your platform forever!

John Parrish

As a grown adult I don't need someone else thinking for me as to whether or not the statements of others are true or not. I can and will always decide for myself. It's my opinion that women biological women should not have their sports and spaces invaded by men or those men who think they are women

Richard Camp

I believe it is “bullying” and “harassment” to continue to allow women / girls to be subjected to men invading their bathrooms and safe spaces

Christopher Seaver

Stop this nonsense. Men don't belong in Woman's rest rooms. The silent majority supports this.

Claudia George

Videos that refer to trans women as males or those videos whose message is that they don't belong in women's sports should not be banned. Opinions and free speech should be protected.

Keith Chesla

Please do not silence the voices who speak out against the liberal left and main stream media who are trying to push a narrative supporting the very few versus the opinion of the overwhelming majority. It's almost as if women rights are going back to pre-1900's levels of rights when women fought so hard to get their rights now they are being trampled on by the media and liberal left. I don't have any against the trans community and they can live their lives as I do mine but when their actions clearly make the overwhelming majority uncomfortable or take advantage of their obvious advantages in womens sports, then yes I do have an issue. Please respect the views of respectful discussion, yes if someone cross the line then sure they can be censured but simply having a discussion that goes against the narrative is not acceptable.
